

Upakar Foundation presents

Sandip Burman & Friends

performing Indian rhythm-based jazz and raga compositions.

Saturday, March 11, 2006

7 pm

BlackRock Center for the Arts Germantown, MD

Young Artist Series

upakar

Upakar Foundation

presents

SANDIP BURMAN & FRIENDS

Dave Pietro

Jonathan Moser

Chris Siebold

Sandip Burman is a disciple of eminent tabla player Maestro Pandit Shyamal Bose and has made a name for himself both as an accompanying percussionist and composer. He has accompanied Pt. Ravi Shankar, Pt. Jasraj & Pt. Hariprasad Chaurasia, collaborated on the Grammy winning album "Outbound" with Béla Fleck, and explored wider frontiers with jazz legends Jack DeJohnette, Al Dimeola, Glen Valez and Victor Wooten.

We encourage all music lovers to come out and listen to this outstanding young performer and to support our merit/need based scholarship for Indian American college students. For more information please go to www.upakar.org. Tickets can be purchased at www.mydonations.com for $25 or $50.

A native of Southboro, Massachusetts, Dave Pietro has been on the New York jazz scene since 1987. He has played at jazz clubs, jazz festivals and concert halls across the world.

Jonathan Moser is an accomplished violin and viola player. He has extensively trained in classical music and has played in a variety of settings in his native Pittsburgh and around the United States.

Chris Siebold has been playing guitar for sixteen years. A native of Chicago, Chris plays in diverse musical settings. He currently teaches jazz improvisation and leads two instrumental ensembles at Elmhurst College.

Saturday, March 11, 2006 | 7pm | BlackRock Center for the Arts | Germantown, MD